Re: United States v. Tracii Show Hutsona, 21 Cr. 299 (JMF)

Dear Judge Furman:

The Government writes with the consent of the defendant to respectfully request an approximately two-week adjournment of the sentencing in the above-listed case, which is currently scheduled for February 7, 2023, at 3:00 p.m. Assistant United States Attorney Michael C. McGinnis and I have handled this case on behalf of the Government since its inception. Assistant United States Attorney McGinnis recently left the United States Attorney's Office and therefore will not participate in the sentencing proceeding. I am one of two prosecutors handling the case of United States v. Suresh Munshani, 22 Cr. 215 (JSR), which had been scheduled to begin trial on January 17, 2023, but was rescheduled in late December to begin on February 6, 2023. The Government expects that the Munshani trial will go forward and that it will last approximately one week. I have conferred with defense counsel, and the parties are available for sentencing in this case on February 20 or February 21, 2023. Accordingly, the Government respectfully requests that the Court adjourn the sentencing to a time on one of those days or a convenient date thereafter.

Respectfully submitted,

DAMIAN WILLIAMS
United States Attorney
